Applicant's Declaration

I am submitting this application for the purpose of obtaining assistance from the Native Commercial Credit Corporation. The statements herein and in the attachments hereto are, to the best of my knowledge, true and correct.

I submit that, to the best of my knowledge, my entire proposal conforms to existing municipal, provincial and federal codes, guidelines and laws.

I agree to allow representatives of the Native Commercial Credit Corporation to gain access, at any reasonable time, to the site and premises of the project described in this application and to inspect the books and records; I also authorize the Native Commercial Credit Corporation to obtain or exchange personal information with any personal information agent in order to establish or verify my financial situation.

AN ACT RESPECTING PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR (LAW 68)

The personal information that you provide to us, as well as that collected by us from other financial institutions or credit agencies, is kept at our head office. Consultation of this information always meets the confidentiality requirements established by the Native Commercial Credit Corporation.

The new law, which came into force on January 1st, 1994, confirms what already existed in practice, namely: your right to consult and obtain a copy of the personal information held by financial institutions and credit agencies. You also have the right to ask for a modification or an addition to your personal information if you are able to demonstrate that the information is inaccurate, incomplete, ambiguous, no longer valid or unnecessary. In case of disagreement, you can address a request to the "Quebec Access to Information Commission," which has all the necessary powers to settle a disagreement. However, you must make this request within the legal delay, generally 30 days.
